SECTION III – ASSURANCES

Title IX of No Child Left Behind includes the following consultation requirements concerning the participation of nonpublic schools in Title II and Title IV.

1. In general to ensure timely and meaningful consultation, a local educational agency, educational service agency or consortium of such agencies shall consult with appropriate nonpublic school officials during the design and development of the programs under this Act, on issues such as:
  - a. how the children's needs will be identified;
  - b. what services will be offered;
  - c. how and where the services will be provided; and
  - d. how the services will be assessed.
2. Timing such consultation shall occur before the agency or consortium makes any decision that affects the opportunities of eligible nonpublic school children, teachers, and other educational personnel to participate in programs under this Act.
3. Discussion required such consultation shall include a discussion of service delivery mechanisms that the agency or consortium could use to provide equitable services to eligible nonpublic school children, teachers, administrators, and other staff.
